

Channing ISD Parent-School Compact

The purpose of the parent-school compact is to communicate a common understanding of home and school responsibilities to assure that every student attains high standards and a quality education.

The School's Responsibility:

- Channing Independent School District (CISD) will solicit parent and community input (through meetings, interviews, questionnaires, surveys, etc.) regarding the education of the students it serves.
- CISD will offer flexible scheduling of parent meetings, training sessions, assemblies, school functions to maximize parent participation.
- CISD will provide translations of written notifications and interpreters at parent conferences, parent meetings, and training sessions.
- CISD will give homework assignments that are an extension of what is learned in the classroom.
- Parents will be notified of school events in a timely, efficient manner by a variety of means including web postings, e-mail, phone calls, and traditional mailings.
- CISD will convey initiatives to parents at open houses and parent conferences.
- CISD will inform parents of the individual achievement levels of students, via parent conferences, phone calls, State Testing Report Cards, individual student Report Cards, and via reports of progress towards graduation.

The Parents' Responsibility:

- As an involved parent, I will support my son/daughter by ensuring that they attend school daily and arrive at school on time.
- I will encourage my son/daughter to follow the rules and regulations of the school.
- I will encourage my son/daughter to dress according to the district's dress code.
- I will encourage my son/daughter to participate in extracurricular activities
- I will seek information regarding my son's/daughter's progress by conferring with teachers, staff and principal, and regularly monitoring of their grades through Parent Portal or hard copies of the progress or report cards.
- I will participate in parent groups/activities to contribute to the overall success of myself as a parent, well being of my son/daughter, and in the advancement of the school's mission.
- I will communicate positive information regarding teachers, principal, and other campus personnel when discussing school with my son/daughter.

Channing Independent School District is committed to a partnership with parents that will enhance the success of the students that we serve. It is our belief that the school years are the most important of their lives. It is imperative that WE (School and Home) work together towards the success of our students. It is our goal to be a model of how a strong parent/school partnership can be successful. We thank you for being a part of that success.
